Defendants

ORDER

UPON the parties filing joint expert statements on Liability Part 1, Liability Part 2 (CIM) and Quantum dated 10, 17 and 18 July 2023 respectively, each of which included annexes from the Defendants’ economic and forensic accounting experts

AND UPON the Tribunal’s Order made on 14 July 2023 following the Pre-Trial Review held in these proceedings (the “PTR Directions Order”)

AND UPON considering the various letters dated 20 July 2023 from the parties updating the Tribunal and providing their respective proposed timetables for the joint expert process

AND UPON considering the application of the Claimants filed on 24 July 2023 seeking from the Tribunal an extension for their economic expert to complete his analyses by 18 August 2023, the responses from the Mastercard and Visa Defendants on 26 July 2023 and the subsequent replies from the Claimants dated 26 July 2023

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Paragraph 3 of the PTR Directions Order is varied such that the Claimants shall file and serve any further brief written analysis of matters addressed by the Defendants' expert economists in annexes to the Joint Expert Statement on Liability Part 2 (CIM) or in annexes to the Joint Expert Statement on Quantum by 12 noon on 11 August 2023.
2. The Defendants are permitted to rely on the annexes to the joint expert statements filed to date, although the parties' economic and forensic experts are to agree final updated joint expert statements. Such signed final joint expert statements are to be filed with the Tribunal by 5pm on 25 August 2023 and are not to include any annexes.
3. Costs in the case.
