CONSENT ORDER

UPON the Claimants in Case No. 1578/5/7/23 (T) Asda Stores Limited & Others v AB Volvo (publ) & Others (the "Settling Claimants") and the "Asda Proceedings") and the Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Defendants in the Asda Proceedings (the "Settling Defendants") having agreed to the terms of this Order

AND UPON the parties to this Order recognising the guidance of the Tribunal in the Tribunal's Ruling on Umbrella Proceedings Cost Sharing Orders, [2024] CAT 12:

- (1) The effect of the settlement is that the Settling Claimants cease to have a claim against the Settling Defendants. To the extent that the Tribunal has any costs jurisdiction over the Settling Claimants and/or the Settling Defendants (as to which this order says nothing), a costs order against one of them in favour of the other may not be a just exercise of the Tribunal's costs discretion.
- (2) Whilst the Settling Defendants (if still a party to the Second Wave Proceedings) would be entitled, as appropriate, to seek costs orders against those claimants in the Second Wave Proceedings who have not settled ("Non-Settling Claimants"), the Tribunal will be reluctant to order such Non-Settling Claimants to pay costs that are attributable to the Settling Claimants.
- (3) The Tribunal may, accordingly, reduce the costs recoverable by the Settling Defendants (if still a party to the Second Wave Proceedings) against Non-Settling Claimants by an amount referable to the costs incurred prior to the date of the settlement that would (but for the settlement) have been paid by the Settling Claimants.

- (4) Whilst the Settling Claimants (if still a party to the Second Wave Proceedings) would be entitled, as appropriate, to seek costs orders against those defendants in the Second Wave Proceedings who have not settled ("Non-Settling Defendants"), the Tribunal will be reluctant to order such Non-Settling Defendants to pay costs that are attributable to the Settling Defendants.
- (5) The Tribunal may, accordingly, reduce the costs recoverable by the Settling Claimants (if still a party to the Second Wave Proceedings) against Non-Settling Defendants by an amount referable to the costs incurred prior to the date of the settlement that would (but for the settlement) have been paid by the Settling Defendants.

BY CONSENT IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Asda Proceedings against the Settling Defendants be dismissed.
2. There shall be no order as to costs.
3. This order shall be served by Settling Claimants on the defendants in the Asda Proceedings.
