ORDER OF THE TRIBUNAL

UPON reading the submissions of the respondent

AND UPON hearing the appellant in person and the legal representatives of the respondent at a case management conference held on 26 January 2006

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The appellant shall file and serve a list of issues, drafted so as to reflect neutrally the issues in the case, by 5.00pm on 1 February 2006.
2. The respondent shall file and serve a bundle of documents, including materials printed from the internet, to show how, in the commercial world, the portability of numbers is being dealt with, by 5.00pm on 3 February 2006:
  - 2.1. The appellant shall provide the respondent with any materials which it would propose to include in such a bundle by 5.00pm on 1 February 2006.
  - 2.2. If possible, an agreed bundle of documents should be prepared. In the absence of agreement on the contents of the bundle, the respondent shall file and serve a bundle containing all documents proposed to be submitted by either party.

3. The respondent shall file and serve a numbered bundle of statutory materials, including any new statutory materials which the respondent proposes to submit, by 5.00pm on 3 February 2006.
4. The respondent shall file and serve a skeleton argument, together with any further clarification of the statutory materials which the respondent considers to be necessary, by 5.00 pm on 10 February 2006.
5. The main hearing be listed for 22 February and 23 February 2006.
6. Costs be reserved.
7. There be permission to apply.
